Such information shall be maintained by the Clerk in a confidential manner and not part of the public record. The parties shall update the information filed with the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days should any of that information become inaccurate.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND PARTIES ARE PUT ON NOTICE that they are subject to the requirements of the following Nevada Revised Statutes:

NRS 125.510(6) regarding abduction, concealment or detention of a child:

PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER:

THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an

1 order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the 2 consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is 3 subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

4 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 5 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if 6 a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on 7 notice of the following provisions in NRS 125.510(8):

8 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a 9 foreign country:

10 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the 11 child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the 12 purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

13 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if 14 the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or 15 concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an 16 amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating 17 the child and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed 18 from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has 19 significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the 20 parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

21 NRS 125C.200 regarding relocation with minor children:

22 If custody has been established and the custodial parent or a parent having joint 23 custody intends to move his residence to a place outside of this state and to take the 24 child with him, he must, as soon as possible and before the planned move, attempt to 25 obtain the written consent of the other parent to move the child from the state. If the 26 noncustodial parent or other parent having joint physical custody refuses to give that 27 consent, the parent planning the move shall, before he leaves the state with the child, 28 petition the court for permission to move the child. The failure of a parent to comply with the provisions of this section may be considered as a factor if a change of custody is requested by the noncustodial parent or other parent having joint custody.
